NATIONWIDE DRIVE OF EPISCOPALIANS

Prominent Speakers Discuss Proposition at Life Work Conference

REV. GREEN PRESIDES

Addresses Delivered by Frank Gibson, Miss Helen Hendricks and Dr. Frank Dean.

The life work conference and supper of the Episcopal Church was held Wednesday evening in the Westminster building and presided over by Rev. Dr. Berryman Green of Episcopal Theological Seminary. The opening prayer was made by Rev. Dr. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Church and Edward L. Stock, of Washington, was toastmaster.

Following a bountiful supper served by a committee of women, Dr. Green called the gathering to order and lucidly explained the gathering held in Detroit where the plans for the nation wide campaign were mapped out and of those who led the movement.

The speaker then introduced Mr. Stock, who presented the speakers of the evening.

Frank Gibson and Miss Helen Hendricks narrated the experiences of the imperative need of the church and of the world for faithful, earnest church workers, and Dr. Frank Dean, Wilmington, N. C., forcibly presented the call to the assembled delegates.

In addition to the representatives from the three Episcopal Churches of this city there were representatives present from Fairfax, Vienna, Rapidan, Hamilton, Leesburg, The Plains, Pohick, Falls Church, and two from St. Paul's Church, Richmond.

"The Nation Wide Campaign" hymn was sung to the tune of "Keep the Homes Fires Burning." At the conclusion of the singing of the hymn "Onward Christian Soldiers," the conference was closed.

Many of those in attendance remained to meet the speakers and discuss the proposition with them.

ASSAULTED AND ROBBED

Automobile Driver Victim of Bandit Near Occoquan

With his skull crushed and his throat badly slashed, James Caffes, a public automobile driver, of Washington, was found unconscious yesterday afternoon in a lonely spot in the woods near the District work house at Occoquan. In a few moments of consciousness the auto driver, who was probably fatally injured, told a tale of being lured out into Virginia on a strange wedding journey by a mysterious passenger who brutally beat him, slashed him with a pocket knife, robbed him of $65 and his car and left him for dead.

UNITED STATES AND MEXICO

The next step towards securing satisfactory settlement of the controversy with Mexico over the arrest and imprisonment of the American consular agent, William O. Jenkins, rests with the Cabinet. This was the understanding last night when it was announced that the State Department would not make public until today the official text of Carranza's flat refusal to comply with the demand for the immediate release of Jenkins.

A. H. S. DOWNS CHARLOTTE HALL

The Alexandria High School football team defeated the Charlotte Hall Military Academy eleven here yesterday in a hard fought contest on the Shipyard gridiron, 13 to 0.

The local scholastic aggregation showed marked improvement in every department. Coach Hayden's charges scored a touched in the second quarter. Left End Petitt received a forward pass from Capt. Knight and romped thirty yards for the initial counter of struggle. Knight missed goal.

In the third quarter Petitt intercepted a forward pass and carried the ball to the visitors' three yard line. Hicks carried it over for the marker. Knight booted the goal.

The backfield of the Charlotte Hall outfit played clever football, but the team work and speed of the locals proved too big a handicap. The Alexandria line played well together while the work of Hicks and Jackson was of a high order, both lads gaining ground whenever called upon

FAIL TO SETTLE MINERS' STRIKE

Conference Ends Abruptly, Union Leaders in Ugly Mood

LEWIS NOW DEFIANT

Declares Garfield and the Cabinet Have Committed the Most Colossal Blunder in Nation's History.

An abrupt end came late yesterday to all attempts to settle the nation wide coal strike by peaceful agreement. Miners and operators spent a bleak Thanksgiving afternoon in embittered debate over the government proposal for a 14 per cent wage increase made Wednesday night by Fuel Administrator Garfield, rejected it and every other proposal that was forthcoming, and then dissolved, sine die.

Participants went home last night and where the break left coal strike conditions no one of them, miner or operator, would say. Likewise, in official quarters, there was silence.

Pittsburg, November 28.—District Number 5 of the Mine Workers announced yesterday after a conference that its members will stand solidly behind President Lewis in rejecting the 14 per cent wage advance offered by Fuel Administrator Garfield to settle the coal strike.

Operators are pushing plans to establish the open shop in working the mines. The coal situation is growing daily more acute.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Meager coal reserves of the country were being hoarded more carefully last night as winter weather swept over the Northwest and spread east of the Great Lakes and south of the Ohio river. Snow had fallen in most of the Middle West and Northern States, and at some points temperatures of 20 below zero were reported. Reports tonight show scores of communities without fuel for heating purposes.

So desperate had the situation become in Kansas that Governor Allen issued an appeal for volunteer coal diggers. The governor worked with his secretary yesterday sending appeals broadcast, according to advices from Topeka. It was expected the first volunteers would commence work Saturday.

VIRGINIAS WIN CONTEST

Defeat Seminole Athletic Club in Snappy Contest at Shipyard Field

The Virginia Athletic Club won a well contested, snappy game from the Seminole Athletic Club of Washington yesterday, 29 to 0.

It was one of the cleanest and fastest games ever staged in Alexandria. Not a plenalty was inflicted and not a man was hurt.

A good sized crowd witnessed the melee.

Owens, Alexander, Duncan and Minnigh starred for the winners, the latter intercepting a forward pass and running thirty yards for a touchdown while Duncan took the ball on the kickoff and raced forty yards. Capt. Stephens played sensational football for the loosing club.

FESTIVITIES HELD THANKSGIVING

Gladness Reigns Throughout The Day and Families Enjoyed Feast

SERVICES OF PRAISE

Various Institutions Remembered—Football Games and Dances Attract Large Throngs.

Alexandria spent a quiet Thanksgiving. Practically all business was suspended and the observance of the day was more general than ever before. The day was marked by special services in the churches. Games of football, basketball, dances and other attractions were also in order and at night many persons attended Washington theaters.

There were many family reunions and many former residents came home to spend the Thanksgiving holidays.

It was donation day at the Alexandria Hospital, the Anne Lee Memorial Home for the Aged and for the Children's Home.

Many charitably inclined persons remembered these institutions with cash, clothing, provisions, etc.

Union Thanksgiving service, which were participated in by the congregations of the various Protestant Churches, were held in the First Baptist Church and the sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church. He took for his subject, "The Unspeakable Gift."

Special Thanksgiving services also were held at St. Mary's Catholic Church and the Immanuel Lutheran Church.

Large congregations attended the services of all of the churches.

Special feeds were given the inmates of the various institutions of the city and they were made to enjoy the day.

KILLED BENEATH TRAIN

Man, Returning Home After Holiday Toil, Meets Mishap in Station

Returning to his humble home tired and weary from hard toil at the end of a Thanksgiving Day in which the rest of the world was rejoicing, Isaac T. McClanahan was crushed to death under a train in the Union Station sheds, in Washington at 6 o'clock last night.

A mis-step in alighting plunged him beneath the cars and his head was severed from his body.

For hours passengers passing to and fro sidestepped a bundle of ragged burlap he had clutched, lying beside track 17, little realizing that it marked the spot that darkened one unfortunate home as another day of thanksgiving flashed by.

McClanahan, 50 years old, was a car cleaner in the employ of the terminal company. His home was in Maryland Park, Md.

MORE FACTS ABOUT THE FAT AND THIN

Whether You Are Fat or Thin Is a Matter of Individual Opinion

IF THIN SEE DOCTOR

Health Officer Foulks Says Bad Teeth and Eye Strain Frequently Cause Underweight.

Most every fat man wants to be thinner and the thin man thinks nature has grossly cheated him by not making him fat. But why be fat if you can live just as long and not have to carry the extra weight. Taking it in a broad way, we might think that a man's weight would depend more or less upon the size of his salary, but the thinnest man I ever knew was drawing $65,000 per year! It is just possible that he got thin trying to draw that salary, but I knew another man who was Admiral of a canal boat, and weighed 463 pounds. He only got $10 per week, but I suppose he got fat in watching the mule draw it—the canal boat, I mean.

But the point we are trying to get at is, when is a man thin? As Shakespeare would say, "That is the question." Can a man be thin and at the same time be healthy and normal. He can, but all will depend upon who is the judge of his state of thinness!

What one man would call thin, another would describe as being wiry and athletic, so there you are. Therefore, up to certain limits, either so called fatness or thinness is purely a matter of individual opinion, and that will vary much according to the fatness or thinness of the person expressing it. If he is an enemy, he will call him "thin as a rail" or "fat as a hog," as the case may be.

A person can be slim, yet not actually thin. Such a candition is perfectly normal. All people are not built alike. The members of some families have been of slim built for generations past, and doubtless will continue so until the mixing of blood will cause a gradual change.

If you consider yourself abnormally fat or thin, have your doctor make a careful examination to determine the cause.

A person's weight, it must be remembered, is to a great extent, controlled by his environment, kind of work, general mode of living and state of mind. Of course any organic trouble or functional disorder may manifest itself by affecting the weight. Bad teeth are a very common cause of underweight. Proper mastication of food is prevented and nutrition suffers. The various groups of bacteria associated with bad teeth, ulcerated gums and abscesses at the tips of the roots, are carried into the stomach with the food and frequently causes indigestion or chronic gastritis—a form of self poisoning.

There are so many serious troubles caused either directly or indirectly by bad teeth, that I cannot impress too strongly upon my readers the great importance of having a dentist frequently inspect them for defects.

Eye strain is another frequent cause of underweight, as it very often effects the entire nervous system and sets up all sorts of obscure disorders. If you have frequent headaches, are nervous and feel generally all out of sorts, better have your eyes examined.

And then there is worry, yes, just simple worry—will take the fat off of you and keep it off about as effectively as any one thing I know of, outside of some serious disease.

If you are just slim and it is natural to you, don't worry, but if you are actually thin, then there is a reason, ask your doctor what it is.

Unless the citizens speed up and pay their taxes the number of persons who will be able to participate in the election next spring will be unusually small.

A MYTH OF LONG AGO

We have at times thought that should some old resident possessing a retentive memory write a history of Alexandria upon the principle adpted by Macaulay—that is from a given period merely scanning the early annals of the city which have often been published—and recall certain pathetic and ridiculous occurrences of the past sixty years or more—it would prove entertaining to all Alexandrians. Biographies of many individuals long since passed from the scene would be especially readable.

The title could be "Incidents in the Unwritten History of Alexandria." The writer, however, might offend some of the progeny of certain individuals who were victims of practical jokers as well as others who, in the words of the poet, had reason to exclaim:

Breathes there a man upon the earth
Who has not often since his birth,
Exclaimed in accents far from mirth,
What a fool I've made of myself.

While reminiscences of Alexandria were passing through our mind recently the physiogomy of a man well-known half a century ago suddenly passed in imagination. It was that of William Norris, editor of the "Elk Run Gazette," a paper supposed to exist by readers everywhere in the United States outside what was then the Seventh (Alexandria) Congressional district. Of course the paper was a myth.

Norris was a small, delicate-looking man, who usually bore a sickly smile, and was more likely to pass as a preacher than a pretical joker as he was. He was not of the Theodore Hook class, however, although his acts were bold.

Norris's wont was to publish articles, mostly of an improbable nature, in which certain prominent men—often officials—of Alexandria and other places in the district were made to figure. Some of his victims took his jokes good-naturedly but others often became frantic, and swore vengeance against the author. This was at a time when "pistols and coffee for two" were often in demand. But while those who had been lampooned were looking for the object of their wrath Norris might have been found sojourning in some farm house in a knoll in the Blue Ridge mountains. After the atmosphere cleared the author would begin to move about again until he could reload his gun.

The Alexandria Gazette was Norris's official paper—that is his articles generally appeared first in this journal. Under the headlines the words "From the Elk Run Gazette" appeared in parentheses. While most of the writer's productions referred to men hereabouts, occasionally Norris wrote articles in which he made national characters to figure. For instance his production concerning the curative properties of "Didelphis Virginiana" (the common o'possum) was copied extensively throughout the country and credit duly given to the "Elk Run Gazette." Men of high position were made to figure in this article.

It would require a good-sized volume to reproduce the many amusing articles from "The Elk Run Gazette." We will tell of one which appeared during the latter half of the fifties. Up to that time the present Carlyle House stood out in full view of people passing up or down Fairfax street. The present front which hides the historic structure was erected by the late James Green. While the foundation was being prepared an article entitled "An Interesting Find," purporting to having been taken from the "Elk Run Gazette" appeared in this paper. According to the writer several circular pieces resembling silver dollars in shape had been exhumed. It was difficult to tell whether they were made of slate, bone or stone, and no one seemed to have any idea of their utility. That they were intended for use, however, was apparent. While the laborers were scanning their find, the article stated that several well known Alexandria officials came along and they unhesitatingly pronounced them poker chips which were in use while Washington and Braddock were holding their conference in the Carlyle House. As the officials whom Norris named were inclined to handle the pasteboards, the article rendered them furious. While blood was in the eyes of his victims Norris was far-far-away enjoying his feeble smiles.

Long in the past the "Letters of Junius" caused great excitement in England. The articles from "The Elk Run Gazette" were equally as interesting to Alexandrians. Norris paid the debt of nature about half a century ago.

UTILITY OF THE SENATE

One of the planks in the platform of the so-called "National Labor Party" calls for the abolition of the United States Senate.

This reminds us of an incident in the life of George Washington. While the present constitution of the United States was being formulated an enthusistic Frenchman whose idea of democracy was similar to that of certain individuals in this day was being entertained at breakfast by Washington. While waiting for the edibles to be placed upon the table the Frenchman told the General he was opposed to the proposition of having a Senate in the United States. He thought one body of Congress sufficient, and made a long argument in his attempts to prove that the House of Representatives was sufficient for the govemrnment of the nation. Washington made no attempt to carry his conclusions, but sat quietly and looked at him.

Coffee had been poured out in the meantime, and while the potion was still steaming the Frenchman attempted to sip it. It was too hot, however, and the guest was forced to desist and wait for it to cool. Washington said: "Why don't you drink the coffee?" "It is too hot," replied the Frenchman. The sage of Mount Vernon then observed: "Your coffee affords the best answer to your lengthy argument. Matters debated often in wrath would occasionally come to the Senate too hot to be dealt with at the time. This upper branch would allow them to cool before deliberating on them. In the mean time the lower house would lose some of its high temperature and the two bodies would be given an opportunity to act coolly and sanely."

OIL FROM MOST ANYTHING

Scientific knowledge is featuring in the useful arts and industries in such a multiplicity of ways that it is difficult even for those individuals who make a specialty of keeping up with the high speed of progress in material betterments, to tabulate the results. Fifty years ago food oils were obtained from, possibly, a dozen different sources—now food oils are seemingly being squeezed from pretty much any and every kind of seed, skin, tissue, pulp or organic substance. As a table oil, olive oil is no longer the isolated favorite it used to be. Good vegetable oils are now extracted from corn, peanuts, beans and a dozen different kinds of seeds.

From California there comes a report about a new salad oil that is being expressed from grape seeds. This may not seem important at first thought, but when it is reflected that several millions of tons of grape seeds in the grape juice and seedless raisin business have been going to waste in the United States because they were supposed to be of no practical use; the meaning of a process that will turn this wastage to account is apparent. Oil from the cottonseed is now used the world over, and from the by-product of the oil mills that compress the cottonseeds there is an "oil cake" that cattle feeders everywhere use for fattening the kine.

It has for long been a matter of common knowledge that alcohol can be obtained from any plant or weed—even from wood. And oil, as it seems, can be squeezed not only from animal tissues, but from any kind of skin or seed. It is a great find—Baltimore American.

JUDGE WHITTLE RESIGNS

Ends Brilliant Career Extending Over Forty Years

After a period of service begun at the March term of 1901, Judge Stafford G. Whittle, president of the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, ended his active career as a jurist Wednesday. Judge Whittle's term will not end until the last day of the year and cases which have been assigned to him will be reviewed and opinions rendered in the meantime.

The resignation of Judge Whittle brings to a close a brilliant career as jurist, lasting for almost forty years. He was a member of the circuit court bench prior to his election in 1901 to succeed Judge Riley in the appellate court. On March 6, 1917, he was elected president of the court to succeed Judge Harrison.

Judge Joseph L. Kelly, of Bristol, was chosen in caucus to succeed Judge Whittle as president of the court. This means that he will undoubtedly be chosen in open session at the January term.

Feeling Fine at Last and Sure She Will be Permanently Cured. Pays High Tribute to Chasco-Vin

"For the past twenty years I have been troubled with indigestion and an acid stomach. The indication of my trouble was constipation, never a movement without a purgative until my attention was called to Chasco-Vin by the clerks in our leading drug store here.

I have taken three bottles and am feeling fine and have not had to take any other medicine since taking the second bottle of Chasco-Vin.

I have confidence in Chasco-Vin and recommend it because I believe in time it will cure me completely." (Signed) Lillie Hoskins Rhodes, Chester, Pa.

INFLUENZA
Killed 84,355 in 46 Cities

DURING the first epidemic of Influenza 84,355 persons died of the disease in 46 cities of the country, according to official government figures, during the time between September 14, 1918, and March 1, 1919. The death rate in country districts was also excessively high.

The epidemic is coming, medical authorities assert. It may be even more horrible than the first, which swept over this country, killing half a million people, destroying the health of countless others. Are you prepared to meet it? Have you the strength which physicians say you need? If you haven't you may be the first stricken.

Build up your strength with Pepsinol. It renews your vitality. It's a general conditioner for nerves, blood and tissue. Pepsinol brings a message of hope—of safety—to those who are weak. It gives vitality and power of resistance to every organ that's subject to attack. The entire constitution responds quickly to it. Now is the time for you to consider calmly how you will conserve your strength, renew your vitality, guard your health. If you do this, you will be convinced that there is nothing so good for you as Pepsinol, the reconstructive tonic that vitalizes and invigorates.

You will be astonished by the way in which its pure ingredients, in strict accordance with the standards of the U. S. Pharmacopoeia, quickly rid you of general debility, stomach trouble and weakened nerves—how quickly and yet how safely it restores vigorous health, how surely it removes that weakening, depressing, lack of co-ordination in the bodily functions.

If Pepsinol does not give you thorough satisfaction, you may have your money back on return of the bottle. That is the guarantee of the makers of genuine Pepsinol, The Peplax Medicine Company, Memphis, Tenn. There is an authorized Pepsinol agent in your locality who can supply you.

The Trinity that Builds Patriotism

THE HOME—THE SCHOOL—THE PLAYHOUR

THE school does it—through patr. poems and songs—a respect for the flag. Father and mother do it at home with the tremendous influence—their love for their country—for their children.

But think of the influence—the greatest of them all—tremendous in scope—in its appeal. The play hour—the toy hour. Happy, joyous children learn quickly and easily then—because they are eager—anxious to learn when learning is made enjoyable.

Teach them more and more patriotism—real "Americanism"—by placing toys in their hands that are 100 per cent American made.

Buy American-Made Toys

American-Made Toys are the most ingenious toys, the sturdiest, of the finest finish. Created and built with the spirit of America in them, they do not represent some foreign country's interpretation of the American ideal.

We have gathered here the choice amusement and educational toys of American builders. Bring the children to see them. Let them become enthusiastic—happy over the best toys we've ever had for sale. Choose from our immense display an American-Made Toy—or several of them—and build patriotism beginning at youth; be patriotic yourself.

PURITY Bond Bread GUARANTEED

To-morrow your loaf may win part of $1000

You who plan to submit a loaf of your home-made bread in the Bond Bread Baking Contest, Saturday--to compete for one of the cash prizes--

1. You will not only have a chance to win part of the $1,000 prize money offered in the Bond Bread Baking Contest—
2. You will not only get two loaves of the new wrapped Bond Bread free in return for the one you submit in the contest—
3. You will not only help supply free bread to charity—
4. But, above all else, you will help bring better, more nourishing bread to this whole community.

How Bond Bread will make each wheat grain yield more nourishment

After the judges have chosen the best 121 of all the home-made loaves submitted tomorrow morning, the General Baking Company, bread-makers, with out-of-town consulting experts, will produce a new loaf called Bond Bread. This will be patterned after the best home-made loaves submitted in tomorrow's contest.

Thus, the taste and appearance of the best home-made loaves will be copied into Bond Bread. And, also, this Bond Bread will be made as nourishing (if not more nourishing) than the best home-made loaves, because—

1. Instead of substitutes, Bond Bread will contain nothing but the very same pure ingredients as used in those home-made loaves. These ingredients will be listed in detail on the sanitary wrappers, which will keep every loaf of Bond Bread germ-proof and dirt-proof. These ingredients in Bond Bread will be guaranteed. This guaranty will be backed by the bond of General Baking Company—hence the name, Bond Bread.

2. Bond Bread will nourish most because it will be made only of the pure old-fashioned materials, and because it will be made in the most scientific way yet evolved. For weeks the nation's best experts have worked to perfect this wonderful new Bond Bread process for the General Baking Company.

This new Bond Bread process will do more than enable the General Baking Company to reproduce the best home-made qualities as ascertained by tomorrow's contest. More than that, this new process will make for increased nourishment per grain of wheat used.

How? By more thoroughly gelatinizing the flour, so that the resultant bread will be more digestible and therefore, more nourishing than even the best home-made loaves. (Authority for the above facts is based on the statements of three of the country's greatest dietetic chemists. Names on request.)

And so if you buy bread because of its similarity to the best of your home-made skill (both as to taste and as to nutritious value,) then you will buy Bond Bread and no other.

Bond Bread will be on sale at thousands of stores on Wednesday, Dec. 3rd, or as soon as the General Baking Company experts are able to analyze the best qualities of tomorrow's prize-winning loaves, and as soon as they are able satisfactorily to reproduce the best qualities in the new General Baking Company product—Bond Bread.

These public spirited women judges will select prize winning loaves

This Committee of Judges will be headed by MISS CLARIBEL NYE, Bread Specialist of Cornell University.

Don't Disregard a Cold

The influenza and pneumonia that swept the country a year ago were proceeded by an epidemic of colds. Foley's Honey and Tar will check a cold if taken in time, and also stop a cough of long standing. It promptly gives relief, soothes and heals. Mrs. Geneva Robinson, 88 N. Swan Street, Albany, N. Y., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best cough medicine I ever used. Two bottles broke a most stubborn lingering cough." It loosens phlegm and mucous, clears air passages, eases hoarseness, stops tickling throat.

Eases A Cold With One Dose

"Pape's Cold Compound" Then Breaks up a Cold in a Few Hours

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks up a severe cold and ends all the grippe misery.

The very first dose opens your clogged up nostrils and the air passages in the head, stops nose running, relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Clear your congested head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, contains no quinine—Insist upon Pape's!

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

Having qualified as executor of the estate of the late Elizabeth Peck, deceased, all persons indebted are requested to make prompt settlement and all persons to whom the estate may be indebted are requested to present their claims properly authenticated for settlement.

Common-Sense for Corns, "Gets-It"

The Great Painless Corn Loosener. Simple as A. B. C. Never Fails.

If you have ever tried to get rid of a corn by bundling up your toe with bandages, or by using salve that made your toe red and almost raw, or tried to drag your corn out with a knife, there will be a surprise waiting for you when you use "Gets-It." Imagine peeling your corn off gloriously, easily and painlessly, just like peeling off a banana skin. Well, that is what happens when you use "Gets-It." There is nothing else that will give you this same result. Millions of folks have had the same blessed experience. Why putter and suffer, limp, and spoil a good time for yourself and your friends, or your peace of mind while trying to attend to business? Use "Gets-It," the simple common sense way. "Gets-It," the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'f'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Alexandria and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by RICHARD GIBSON, FRANK WARFIELD.

Watch Your Blood

When The Iron Runs Low You Are In Danger

The Same As When The Mercury Goes Down You Know There Will be a Frost

How To Make The Test That Tells

Actual blood tests show that a tremendous large number of people who are weak and ill lack iron in their blood and that they are ill for no other reason than lack of iron. Iron deficiency paralyzes healthy, forceful action, pulls down the whole organism and weakens the entire system. A pale face, a nervous irritable disposition, a lack of strength and endurance and the inability to cope with the strong vigorous folks in the race of life—these are the sort of warning signals that Nature gives when the blood is getting thin, pale, watery and literally starving for want of iron. If you are not sure of your condition, go to your doctor and have him take your blood count and see where you stand or else make the following test yourself: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired; next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. By enriching the blood and creating new red blood cells Nuxated Iron strengthens the nerves, rebuilds the weakened tissues and helps to instill renewed energy, and power into the whole system.

Unlike the older inorganic iron products Nuxated Iron is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. It is dispensed by all good druggists.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. SOLDIERS DRIVE MINERS

Part of Workers Are Surrounded While Troops Search Homes For Others

Sheridan, Wyo., Nov. 28.—United States soldiers Wednesday enforced an interpretation of the order recently issued at Indianapolis to enforce striking miners to return to work.

The soldiers, under command of Major Warren Dean, acting by virtue of a proclamation issued by Brigadier General D. A. Boore, placing the State under military control, swept down upon the mining town of Carneysville, and, with bayonets fixed, surrounded the hall where many of the strikers had congregated. The strikers were held there while other soldiers made a house to house search for additional miners, and then Major Dean called a meeting of the local union.

The union officials presided at the meeting. After it had been explained by Major Dean that he thought the miners, most of whom had previously expressed a desire to return to work, were violating the Federal court's mandamus, the union officials called for a vote on the question of returning to work Friday morning. The men present decided unanimously to resume work.

A list of 72 names, mainly of radicals among the miners in the district, had been given to Major Dean, and 52 of those named were arrested by the detachment of the Fifteenth Cavalry and taken to Fort McKenzie.

SLAIN FOR HIS PATRIOTISM

Ohio Dentist Shot With Dumdum Bullet by Enemy Alien

Norwalk, Ohio, Nov. 28.—Chas. Rehfield confessed today to the murder of Dr. Horace A. Benson, prominent dentist here, according to the police, because of his patriotic wartime activities. Rehfield is said to have declared he shot Benson with a dumdum bullet through a basement window while the dentist was attending the furnace in his home Tuesday night.

Rehfield, who was captured six miles from here by a posse, after an all night search, is said to have admitted making an attempt to kill Benson Friday night and that he had planned "to get" Dr. Carl Schneerer, a physician, because they had been prominent in fighting propaganda during the war. Rehfield had been interned for some time because of his alleged seditious utterances and actions.

Dumdum bullets and a rifle were in Rehfield's possession when he was arrested.

"I could have killed the posse, too, if I had had the time," Rehfield is alleged to have told the Sheriff.

THEATRES

GRAND THEATRE

Suppose you were a nice girl, but loved to play ball, and climb trees, and go swimming—and just be a regular tomboy;

And suppose your old maid aunt got disgusted with you and sent you, disguised as a boy, to a woman hating uncle;

And suppose you had to cut out candy and pretty clothes, and smoke big, black cigars, and swear;

And suppose that after going through with all of this you fell in love with an awfully good looking young man; and suppose he thought all the time that you were a boy.

Then, suppose you were afraid to tell the truth, because your uncle would disinherit you; and suppose another girl also liked this young man;

What in the world would you do? That is a baffling question, isn't it?

But Jackie Saunders didn't suppose. She went ahead and did things. In "Muggsy" she "steps in where angels fear to tread"—and triumphs. That's why the photo-play at the Grand Theatre is unusually entertaining. It solves this problem to the entire satisfaction of everyone concerned.
